Child Protection and Welfare Policy for Ogmore Valley Wheelers

(This has been produced with the help of the Child Protection in Sport Unit (CPSU)).

Introduction

All sporting organizations which make provision for children and young people must ensure that:

- The welfare of the child is paramount
- All children, whatever their age, culture, disability, gender, language, racial origin religious beliefs and/or sexual identity have the right to protection from abuse
- All suspicions and allegations of abuse will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately
- All members of the club have a responsibility to report concerns to the appropriate officer

Policy Statement

Ogmore Valley Wheelers recognizes that it has a duty of care to safeguard all children involved in Ogmore Valley Wheelers from harm. All children have a right to protection, and the needs of disabled children and others who may be particularly vulnerable must be taken into account. Ogmore Valley Wheelers will ensure the safety and protection of all children involved in Ogmore Valley Wheelers through adherence to the Child Protection guidelines adopted by Ogmore Valley Wheelers.

A child is defined as a person under the age of 18 (The Children Act 1989).

Policy Aims

The aim of the Ogmore Valley Wheelers Child Protection and Welfare Policy is to promote good practice:

- Providing children and young people with appropriate safety and protection whilst in the care of Ogmore Valley Wheelers
- Allowing all club members to make informed and confident responses to specific child protection issues

Promoting Good Practice

Child abuse, particularly sexual abuse, can arouse strong emotions in those facing such a situation. It is important to understand these feelings and not allow them to interfere with your judgement about the appropriate action to take.

Abuse can occur within many situations including the home, school and the sporting environment. Some individuals will actively seek employment or voluntary work with young people in order to harm them. A coach, instructor, teacher, official or volunteer will have regular contact with young people and be an important link in identifying cases where they need protection. All suspicious cases of poor practice should be reported following the guidelines in this document.

When a child enters the club having been subjected to child abuse outside the sporting environment, sport can play a crucial role in improving the child's self-esteem. In such instances the club must work with the appropriate agencies to ensure the child receives the required support.

Good Practice Guidelines

All personnel should be encouraged to demonstrate exemplary behaviour in order to protect themselves from false allegations. The following are common sense examples of how to create a positive culture and climate.

Good practice means:

- Always working in an open environment (e.g. avoiding private or unobserved situations and encouraging open communication)
- Treating all young people/vulnerable adults equally, and with respect and dignity
- Always putting the welfare of each young person first, before winning or achieving goals )
- Building balanced relationships based on mutual trust which empowers children to share in the decision-making process
- Making sport fun, enjoyable and promoting fair play
- Ensuring that if any form of manual/physical support is required, it is provided openly and according to guidelines provided by the sport's National Governing Body. Care is needed, as it is difficult to maintain hand positions when the child is constantly moving. Young people should always be consulted and their agreement gained before offering any form of manual/physical support. Some parents are becoming increasingly sensitive about this and their views should always be carefully considered
- Keeping up to date with technical skills, qualifications and insurance
- Involving parents/carers wherever possible.
- Being an excellent role model – this includes not smoking or drinking alcohol in the company of young people
- Giving enthusiastic and constructive feedback rather than negative criticism
- Recognizing the developmental needs and capacity of young people and vulnerable adults – avoiding excessive training or competition and not pushing them against their will
- Securing parental consent in writing to act in loco parentis, if the need arises to administer emergency first aid and/or other medical treatment
- Keeping a written record of any injury that occurs, along with the details of any treatment given
- Requesting written parental consent if club officials are required to transport young people in their cars

Practices to be Avoided

The following should be avoided except in emergencies. If cases arise where these situations are unavoidable (e.g. a child sustains an injury and needs to go to hospital, or a parent fails to arrive to pick a child up at the end of a session) it should be with the full knowledge and consent of someone in charge in the club and / or the child's parents:

- Avoid spending time alone with children away from others
- Avoid taking a child to an event / session or taking them home afterwards

Practices Never to be Sanctioned

The following should never be sanctioned. You should never:

- Engage in rough, physical or sexually provocative games, including horseplay
- Allow children to use inappropriate language unchallenged
- Allow allegations made by a child to go unchallenged, unrecorded or not acted upon

Use of Photographic/Filming Equipment at Sporting Events

There is evidence that some people have used sporting events as an opportunity to take inappropriate photographs or film footage of young and disabled sportspeople in vulnerable positions. All clubs should be vigilant and any concerns should be reported to the Club Child Welfare Officer.

Easy rules to remember are:

- If the child is named, avoid using their photograph.
- If a photograph is used, avoid naming the child.
- Ask for consent using the permission form (Consent form for photographic images for children/young people under 18 years of age) to use their image. This ensures that they are aware of the way the image is to be used to represent the sport. This must be completed and signed by the Parent/Guardian and returned to the Club secretary
- Avoid the use of the first name and surname of individuals in a photograph. This reduces the risk of inappropriate, unsolicited attention from people within and outside the sport.
- Follow the recognised procedure for reporting the use of inappropriate images to reduce the risks to children. Using the safeguarding procedure, ensure that the Club Welfare Officer and the Services and/or Police are informed.

At Competitions

Public information: the specific details concerning photographic/video and filming equipment registration should, wherever possible, be published prominently in event programmes and must be announced over the public address system, prior to the start of the event.

The recommended wording is:

In line with the recommendation in the Welsh Cycling Union Policy, the promoters of this event request that any person wishing to engage in any video, zoom or close-range photography should register their details with staff at the spectator desk before carrying out any such photography.

The promoter reserves the right to decline entry to any person unable to meet or abide by the promoter's conditions.

If you are concerned about any photography taking place at this event, please contact the promoter or event organiser who will be pleased to discuss this matter with you.

Responding to Allegations or Suspicions

It is not the responsibility of anyone working in, a paid or unpaid capacity to decide whether or not child abuse has taken place. However, there is a responsibility to act on any concerns through contact with the appropriate authorities.

Ogmore Valley Wheelers will assure all members that it will fully support and protect anyone, who in good faith reports his or her concern that a colleague is, or may be, abusing a child.

Where there is a complaint against a member there may be three types of investigation:

- A criminal investigation
- A child protection investigation
- A disciplinary or misconduct investigation

The results of the police and child protection investigation may well influence the disciplinary investigation, but not necessarily.

Action if there are Concerns

1. Concerns about Poor Practice:

If, following consideration, the allegation is clearly about poor practice; the Club Child Welfare Officer will deal with it as a misconduct issue.

If the allegation is about poor practice by the Club Child Welfare Officer, or if the matter has been handled inadequately and concerns remain, it should be reported to the relevant National Governing Body officer BC (WCU) who will decide how to deal with the allegation and whether or not to initiate disciplinary proceedings.

2. Concerns about Suspected Abuse

Any suspicion that a child has been abused by either a member or a volunteer should be reported to the Club Child Welfare Officer, who will take such steps as considered necessary to ensure the safety of the child in question and any other child who may be at risk.

The Club Child Welfare Officer will refer the allegation to the Social Services department who may involve the Police, or will go directly to the Police in an emergency.

The parents or carers of the child will be contacted as soon as possible following advice from the Social Services department.

The Club Child Welfare Officer should also notify the relevant National Governing Body officer who in turn will inform the National Governing Body Child Protection Officer who will deal with any media enquiries.

If the Club Child Welfare Officer is the subject of the suspicion/allegation, the report must be made to the appropriate Manager or in his/her absence the National Governing Body Child Protection Officer who will refer the allegation to Social Services.

Confidentiality

Every effort should be made to ensure that confidentiality is maintained for all concerned. Information should be handled and disseminated on a need to know basis only. This includes the following people:

- The Club Child Welfare Officer
- The parents of the person who is alleged to have been abused
- The person making the allegation
- Social Services / Police
- The National Governing Body Regional Development Manager and National Governing Body Child Protection Officer
- The alleged abuser (and parents if the alleged abuser is a child). Seek Social Services advice on who should approach the alleged abuser

Information should be stored in a secure place with limited access to designated people, in line with data protection laws (e.g. that information is accurate, regularly updated, relevant and secure).

Internal Enquiries and Suspension

The (OVW) Child Welfare Officer will make an immediate decision about whether any individual accused of abuse should be temporarily suspended pending further Police and Social Services inquiries.

Irrespective of the findings of the Social Services or Police inquiries the (OVW) Club Committee will assess all individual cases to decide whether a member can be reinstated and how this can be sensitively handled. This may be a difficult decision; particularly where there is insufficient evidence to uphold any action by the Police. In such cases, the Ogmores Valley Wheelers Club Committee must reach a decision based upon the available information which could suggest that on a balance of probability; it is more likely than not that the allegation is true. The welfare of the child should remain of paramount importance throughout.

Support to Deal with the Aftermath of Abuse

Consideration should be given to the kind of support that children, parents and members of staff may need. Use of helplines, support groups and open meetings will maintain an open culture and help the healing process. The British Association for Counselling Directory is available from

Twitter @BACP,

E-mail: bac@bacp.co.uk,

Internet: www.bacp.co.uk.

Consideration should be given to what kind of support may be appropriate for the alleged perpetrator.

Allegations of Previous Abuse

Allegations of abuse may be made some time after the event (e.g. by an adult who was abused as a child by a member of staff who is still currently working with children). Where such an allegation is made, the club should follow the procedures as detailed above and report the matter to the social services or the police. This is because other children, either within or outside sport, may be at risk from this person. Anyone who has a previous criminal conviction for offences related to abuse is automatically excluded from working with children. This is reinforced by the details of the Protection of Children Act 1999.

Action if Bullying is Suspected

If bullying is suspected, the same procedure should be followed as set out in 'Responding to Allegations or Suspicions' above.

Action to help the victim and prevent bullying in sport:

- Take all signs of bullying very seriously
- Encourage all children to speak and share their concerns (It is believed that up to 12 children per year commit suicide as a result of bullying, so if anyone talks about or threatens suicide, seek professional help immediately). Help the victim to speak out and tell the person in charge or someone in authority. Create an open environment
- Investigate all allegations and take action to ensure the victim is safe. Speak with the victim and the bully(ies) separately
- Reassure the victim that you can be trusted and will help them, although you cannot promise to tell no one else
- Keep records of what is said (what happened, by whom, when)
- Report any concerns to the Club Child Welfare Officer or the school (wherever the bullying is occurring)

Action towards the bully(ies):

- Talk with the bully(ies), explain the situation, and try to get the bully (ies) to understand the consequences of their behaviour. Seek an apology to the victim(s)
- Inform the bully's / bullies' parents
- Insist on the return of 'borrowed' items and that the bully(ies) compensate the victim
- Provide support for the victim's coach
- Impose sanctions as necessary
- Encourage and support the bully(ies) to change behaviour
- Hold meetings with the families to report on progress
- Inform all organisation members of action taken
- Keep a written record of action taken

3. Concerns Outside the Immediate Sporting Environment (e.g. a Parent or Carer):

Report your concerns to the Club Child Welfare Officer, who should contact Social Services or the Police as soon as possible. See below for the information Social Services or the Police will need.

If the Club Child Welfare Officer is not available, the person being told of or discovering the abuse should contact Social Services or the police immediately.

Social Services and / or the Police will decide how to involve the parents/carers.

The Club Child Welfare Officer should also report the incident to the National Governing Body. The National Governing Body should ascertain whether or not the person/s involved in the incident play a role in Ogmores Valley Wheelers and act accordingly. Maintain confidentiality on a need-to-know basis only.

Information for Social Services or the Police about Suspected Abuse

To ensure that this information is as helpful as possible, a detailed record should always be made at the time of the disclosure/concern, which should include the following:

- The child's name, age and date of birth of the child
- The child's home address and telephone number
- Whether or not the person making the report is expressing their own concerns or those of someone else
- The nature of the allegation. Include dates, times, any special factors and other relevant information
- Make a clear distinction between what is fact, opinion or hearsay
- A description of any visible bruising or other injuries. Also any indirect signs, such as behavioural changes
- Details of witnesses to the incidents
- The child's account, if it can be given, of what has happened and how any bruising or other injuries occurred
- Have the parents been contacted?
- If so what has been said?
- Has anyone else been consulted? If so, record details
- If the child was not the person who reported the incident, has the child been spoken to? If so what was said?
- Has anyone been alleged to be the abuser? Record details
- Where possible referral to the police or social services should be confirmed in writing within 24 hours and the name of the contact who took the referral should be recorded

Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Disclosures

The Disclosure and Barring Service is a means of checking an individual's background to ensure they do not have a history that would make them unsuitable for working with children. A Disclosure will provide current details of a person's criminal record, including convictions, cautions, reprimands and warnings held on the Police National Computer. It will also contain details from lists held by the Department of Health and the Department for Education and Skills of those considered unsuitable for close contact with young people. Depending on the level of Disclosure, it might also contain information held by local police forces.

See:

www.bavo.org.uk/News/safeguarding-update

Self Disclosure Forms

A Self Disclosure Form requires an individual to provide information about any convictions, cautions, suspensions, formal warnings, reprimands and pending court cases. Under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, most convictions etc. become 'spent' after a certain period (which differs in length depending on the gravity of the offence) and organisations are only able to ask about 'unspent' convictions. However, if a role involves working closely with young people, it is exempt from this requirement and ALL convictions etc. need to be declared.

A Self Disclosure Form may provide similar information to an DBS Disclosure. However, there are two main benefits to using a Self-Disclosure Form as well:

- 1) It can be completed quickly, so if there is a delay in receiving a DBS Disclosure, your organisation is still able to ascertain whether an individual has any previous convictions etc.
- 2) It includes a signed statement requiring the individual to inform your organisation any new convictions etc. This means that anything which occurs after the date of the DBS check should still be brought to your attention.

Nonetheless, it is still important that an Enhanced DBS check is carried out, as there is always a risk that someone may decide not to declare relevant information when completing a Self-Disclosure Form.

It is recommended that all new and existing coaches, helpers and other volunteers who have direct contact with junior club members complete a Self-Disclosure Form (see next page)

Self Disclosure Form – Part Two

In order to protect young people within the Club, the role for which you are being considered is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. This means that you are required to provide details of all convictions, cautions, suspensions, formal warnings and reprimands, even if they would otherwise be considered 'spent'. This includes motoring-related offences and pending court cases. Any information declared will remain confidential and will be considered only with regards to its relevance to your role within the club.

Please answer the following questions, then sign and date the form

Have you ever been convicted, cautioned, bound over, suspended, formally warned or reprimanded, or do you have any pending court cases?

Yes / No (delete as appropriate)

Yes / No (delete as appropriate)

If 'Yes', please supply details below:

I declare that the information above is correct, and I agree to inform the Club Child Welfare Officer within 24 hours if I am subsequently arrested or investigated in relation to Child Welfare concerns, and within 7 days if any other information in Part Two changes. I understand that provision of false information or failure to provide updated information is a disciplinary offence.

Guidance Notes for Using DBS Disclosures / Self Disclosures

The information provided by both DBS Disclosures and Self-Disclosures is of a sensitive, personal nature, and is covered by the GDPR.

DBS Disclosures

When DBS Disclosures are applied for, you will receive a Code of Practice from the DBS relating to the handling and storing of information (for more information see www.disclosure.homeoffice.gov.uk)

Self Disclosures

Handling Information

Information provided on a Self-Disclosure Form must be only be disclosed to those who 'need to know', i.e. the Club's Child Welfare Officer(s), and must only be used for the specific reason for which it was collected. For example, it must not be passed on to another club that the individual is involved with, or discussed with other club members who are not directly involved with Child Welfare.

Storing Forms

All Self Disclosure forms must be kept securely in lockable storage with access strictly limited to those who are entitled to see it, e.g. the Club's Child Welfare Officer(s). Copies of forms should not be made, and originals should be securely destroyed (i.e. shredded / burned) no longer than six months after a decision has been made about a person's suitability for a role within the club. However, we recommend that you keep a record of the names of people who have completed Self Disclosures, the date they completed the form and of the decision made about their suitability for a role within the club (but not details of any convictions etc.)

Dealing with Disclosure of Convictions, Cautions etc.

If a DBS Disclosure or Self Disclosure reveals details of any convictions, cautions etc., careful consideration must be given regarding whether these details affect the person's suitability for the specific role within your club that they are being considered for.

In the first instance we recommend that you contact your National Governing Body's Child Protection / Welfare Officer for advice.

alistair.waldron@welshcycling.co.uk

When making a decision we recommend that you take into account:

- whether the conviction or other matter revealed is relevant to the position in question
- the seriousness of any offence or other matter revealed
- the length of time since the offence or other matter occurred
- whether the applicant has a pattern of offending behavior or other relevant matters
- whether the applicant's circumstances have changed since the offending behavior or the other relevant matters
- the circumstances surrounding the offence and the explanation(s) offered by the person concerned.

Each situation will need to be considered separately, as no two sets of circumstances are likely to be the same. For example, if a person was convicted of a speeding offence 15 years ago, you may feel it has no relevance to their ability to run the tuck shop on club nights. However, if they have several recent convictions for drink-driving, they would be highly unsuitable to drive the club's minibus to competitions.

When considering information provided on DBS / Self Disclosure Forms and making a decision about a person's suitability to fulfill a role within your organisation, we recommend that this is done by a panel rather than an individual. This panel should include the Club's Child Welfare Officer(s) and other suitable members of the Club's Committee. It may be appropriate for the panel to speak to the individual concerned to find out the details surrounding the offence in order to make a more informed decision, and the individual should be informed of the panel's final decision and the reasons for this. However, no information other than the panel's final decision on suitability should be communicated to anyone else within the club.
